Mission Trip Summer 2026: Jesse Clemmer would like to hear from families interested in having youth (& adults) join Covenant United Methodist for their annual ASP trip this Summer! The Appalachian Service Project is a weeklong faith-based trip to repair & rebuild people's homes in Appalachia. There are biweekly ASP meetings on Sundays at 7:00 for team building games & discussion about the trip. Any youth who have finished 6th grade may participate. The trip time frame is usually the last weekend of June into the first weekend of July. Please email him at jhclemmer7@gmail.com.

Creating Common Cause, Telling our Stories: Healing Wounds of Racism, Building Beloved Community – Telling our Stories features 4 interactive gatherings of theater & discussion in which participants see themselves in one another's stories of race & racism as they are brought to life on stage. This performance was cancelled due to weather; it has been rescheduled for Feb. 21 at 2pm at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Newtown Square. Tickets and more information are available here.

Trinity House News

Feb. 8, 2026

The floors are done and the finishes are curing. Our contractor is working on the "punch list" of final things noted in our walk-through. It looks great! Stay tuned for a tour date. Additional, outdoor drainage project to follow in the next few weeks.
