Taizé Service (5/6, 7:30pm) - These services are based on those of the Taizé community in France, started during WWII as a place for people to live monastically with a daily practice of meditative prayer. The 40-minute service consists of simple chants, two Scripture readings, & 8-10 minutes of sitting in silence for meditation/prayer. It is a time to pause & attend to God's presence and offer of Peace. The chants are simple & easy, & the time of silence together is a gracious gift. All are welcome to be part of this peaceful, reflective time of waiting on God's presence.
